1. In accordance with instructions from the Director which you transmitted to me on 18 September, I have considered the possible utilization of [redacted] and went to Ft. Lee on 21 September to discuss such possibilities with him.

2. [redacted] is particularly interested in a foreign assignment and stated that he could only consider an assignment which would provide a total return of around $14,500 per year which approximately equals his active duty pay. He already has employment offered in San Antonio, the compensation for which, together with his retired pay, would reach approximately this figure. He was quite interested in the possibility of an assignment to logistics duties in the Far East and expressed a willingness to be stationed in [redacted]. He is available for immediate employment on 1 October.

3. The position of Support Chief in the [redacted] would, considering allowances, meet his salary requirements. I formed a very favorable impression as a result of about 45 minutes' conversation. [redacted] appears to be both mentally and physically alert and has a pleasing personality. His Army record is outstanding. A brief of his record is attached.

4. I have discussed this matter with Mr. Wisner who concurs with me that [redacted] would be a suitable replacement for [redacted] as Chief of Support in the Far East area.

5. It is therefore recommended that we employ [redacted] as of 1 October 1952 for this position, retain him in Washington for a sufficient period of indoctrination, and then send him to [redacted] and recall [redacted]. Please ascertain the Director's desires in this matter.
